

SDVLP Ready to Show Lawyers are Funny

February 3, 2012

(Mission Times Courier, San Diego, CA) - The San Diego Volunteer Lawyer Program (SDVLP), an organization that provides free legal services to thousands of clients every year, will hold its sixth annual LAF-Off (Lawyers are Funny) event March 22 at the House of Blues in downtown San Diego.

Lawyers can be funny! After five years of sold out performances, LAF-Off audiences have confirmed what most would not believe – the men and women of the legal profession, so serious by day, can have you rolling in the aisles at night. LAF-Off features five lawyers and three law students doing hilariously funny stand-up comedy routines that are judged by three equally funny attorney “judges.”

Neal Svalstad, general counsel for Hitachi Home Electronics America Inc., last year’s LAF-Off winner, will be back to defend his title. Also returning is former contestant and LAF-Off judge Dan Lawton as emcee.

Once again City National Bank is LAF-Off’s Presenting Sponsor, with additional major support provided by Procopio Cory Hargreaves & Savitch, Cohelan, Khoury & Singer, JonesDay, and Cooley LLP, among other sponsors.

LAF-Off will kick off with VIP and general cocktail receptions at 5 p.m., followed by the comedy competition at 6 p.m. VIP tickets are $100 each and General Admission tickets are $60 each. Registration is available on-line at www.lafoff.com.

All proceeds from LAF-Off support the work of SDVLP.
